PRESENTATION OF 2024 AND 2025 NATIONAL BUDGET

The Director of Finance represented his presentation to members, on the 2024 and 2025 Budget. He therefore informed the members that the 2025 National Budget stands on 'Building

Resilience inclusive Growth and Improve Livelihoods'.

He therefore informed the members that in the ward development committees allowances were implemented and also suggested if the cash for work allowance can be done monthly than the 10 days, so it can be way of employment on small contracts.

SUBMISSIONS FROM WARD DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEES

1. CASH FOR WORK

- The submission on cash for work was that it had some challenges which the communities were facing and these were;
 - I. Collection of garbage was been delayed due to few garbage Trucks to go round the wards.
 - II. Procuring of tools for garbage collection been delayed.
 - III. To have another department which will concentrate on the payment of cash for work, has it sometimes people were delayed to be paid after work.

2. SUBMISSIONS OF PROJECTS

- WDC'S to be submitting minutes and projects which they have selected in time to CDF committee and also to the Director of city planning.

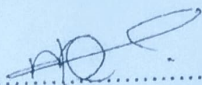

ANYOTHER BUSINESS

- Ward Development Committees to be collecting 5% from the revenue collected in there wards.
- To add small amount of money on Administrative component to the WDCs
- Need of procuring of gravel to bury shallow wells.
